Donation is something contributed or given (in cash or in kind) by Celcom as charity without expecting any advantages or returns.

Sponsorship is financial support given to an association, organisation or event for branding display or other benefits in return, e.g. tickets/passes, hospitality etc.

11.1 CT Sabah occasionally makes Donations and participates in Sponsorships in countries in which we operate to further our business objectives. Such Donations or Sponsorships shall not violate our core values, policies and applicable laws.

All Stakeholders exercise good judgement and perform reasonable due diligence.

11.2 The Donations or Sponsorships should not be made to secure any improper advantage or retain any business relationship.

11.3 Good judgement and due diligence must be exercised to assess the purpose and intention of the Donation or Sponsorship, and the reputation or status of the beneficiaries. All Sponsorships or Donations shall be offered and made transparently in accordance with CT Sabah.

12. Corporate Social Responsibility (“CSR”)

CSR is a self-regulated and ethics-driven activity to ensure the sustainability of society and our environment through voluntary activity.

- 12.1 CT Sabah actively supports various types of CSR activities in countries in which we operate, to ensure the sustainability of society and our environment.
- 12.2 CSR activities must be carefully examined and assessed for legitimacy and genuineness in not being carried out to improperly influence a business outcome.
- 12.3 The proposed recipient must be a legitimate organisation and the rightful recipient. Therefore, appropriate due diligence must be conducted to ascertain whether any Public/Government Officials are affiliated with the organisation. There should be a transparent selection and decision-making process, with proper records kept.
- 12.4 CSR activities must be approved and implemented in accordance with CT Sabah Instruments wherein the activities are structured to ensure that the intended purpose is met and benefits are extended to the intended recipient(s).

13. Facilitation Payments

- 13.1 Facilitation Payments are gratification or inducements to secure or expedite a routine function which one person shall be or is responsible for performing as part of his/her daily roles and responsibilities. The payments are usually small payments paid unofficially to expedite routine administrative processes on matters such as visas, permits, licenses, and custom clearance.
- 13.2 Stakeholders are prohibited to directly or indirectly offer, promise, give, solicit or accept, agree to accept, or attempt to obtain anything that might be regarded as a Facilitation Payment in any form.
- 13.3 There may be certain exceptional situations or circumstances where Stakeholder(s) may have to make Facilitation Payments under duress or coercion, including life-threatening and actual or potential loss of life, limb and liberty situations. However, it must be immediately reported to the designated Compliance Manager and appropriate document(s) of such incident along with the reasons must be recorded. The Compliance Manager shall take immediate action(s) as may be required.

14. Conflict of Interest

14.1 All Stakeholders have a contractual obligation and are accountable for decisions made or actions taken, which should always be in the best interest of CT Sabah.

14.2 All Stakeholders shall recognise and avoid situations of conflict of interest (actual, real, perceived or potential) to maintain integrity and develop trust by making professional and impartial business decisions.

14.3 Conflict of interest arises when an individual's objectivity is compromised or perceived to have been compromised, and there is a conflict between his/her professional duties or responsibilities at CT Sabah and his/her personal interest.

To make impartial decisions in the best interest of CT Sabah by recognising actual or potential conflict of interest

14.4 If any conflict of interest is identified, even if it is perceived or potential, the Stakeholder must immediately declare and report the situation(s) as referred in CT Sabah Instruments. The Stakeholder shall also take the necessary actions to immediately distance, recuse or remove himself/herself from the situation.

14.5 In the event of any conflict of interest by a Third Party, they must report the same to the Head of Procurement in accordance with the Supplier Code of Conduct.
